

Tan Chuan Thye is a Senior Counsel of the Supreme Court of Singapore. He has a broad commercial, corporate and financial dispute resolution practice as lead counsel in various arbitration and court proceedings. His practice has a wide geographical scope and he represents a range of international and domestic entities. He has been recognised by leading publications – such as Chambers Global – in the field of dispute resolution work, and is described as “a very safe pair of hands, analytical and very measured in his approach, clearly on the ascent and developing a sterling reputation”.

Apart from his work as lead counsel, Chuan Thye has sat on a significant number of arbitration proceedings both as sole arbitrator and as part of a tribunal. He is on the panel of arbitrators of the SIAC, HKIAC, ICC and KLRAC.

In addition, Chuan Thye is recognised as a leading restructuring and insolvency lawyer by the IFLR and Chambers, and is a fellow of the Insolvency Practitioners Association of Singapore. He is described by contemporaries as “very smart – a good lawyer” and clients appreciate that he is “very practical”.

Chuan Thye takes an active role in the Singapore legal profession and sits on various committees of the Singapore Academy of Law, and serves as a member of disciplinary tribunals established under the Singapore Legal Profession Act to consider complaints against lawyers practising in Singapore. He is also on the LASCO panel for counsel for capital case proceedings.

Chuan Thye is the general editor of “Law and Practice of Commercial Litigation in Singapore” (Sweet & Maxwell, 2015) and contributes the chapters to a number of publications for practitioners: on lending and security in Halsbury’s Laws of Singapore (Vol. 12) on Banking and Finance; on liquidation in the “Law and Practice of Corporate Insolvency” (2005); on sureties in the “Law Relating to Specific Contracts in Singapore” (Thomson, 2010 and Sweet & Maxwell 2016), on the enforcement of awards in “International Arbitration Checklists” (2nd Edn, Juris Publications, 2009); and, on setting aside awards in “Arbitration in Singapore: A Practical Guide” (Sweet & Maxwell, 2014).

Contact

Address:

Rajah & Tann Singapore LLP

9 Battery Road, Straits Trading Building, #25-01

Singapore 049910

Email: chuan.thye.tan@rajahtann.com

Tel: +65 62320977